CLOSE FINISHES AT HAWTHORNE.

The soil at Hawthorne is drying out rapidly, and if no more rain falls between now and racing time the Endurance Stakes, at two miles, will be decided over a fast track this afternoon and should furnish a contest well worth seeing.

Yesterday's racing was by far the best seen at Hawthorne during its present meeting. There were no less than four close finishes—one, in fact, was so close and so differently seen by the judges and crowd that for a time it seemed that there would surely be a riot. This particular close finish came out of the second race, which was a selling affair at seven furlongs and was between Braw Lad and Lomond. The former was the favorite in the betting and got the decision, which was really so close that only the judges, who are in the proper place to see, could decide correctly. The angle looking at a close finish from the Hawthorne stand is a deceiving one and ever since the track was first built the judges have had their own troubles in satisfying the crowds whenever a hairline finish turned up, and the one between Braw Lad and Lomond was certainly a close one. Braw Lad was on the inside and passing the sixteenth post Lomond had him beaten by about a neck, and, in fact, at this point Tame Irishman was in front of Braw Lad, but the latter displayed more gameness than he ever did before, and as the other two hung right at the end he managed to get up just in time to catch the judges eye first and incidentally raise a big disturbance.

Despite Lady Meddlesome's bad showing the last time she started she was strongly backed by those supposed to be "in the know" to beat a much better field than she was up against on her last essay. To say that the filly ran an improved race would be putting it mildly. She acted and ran like a different horse, and was beaten two heads simply because jockey Buchanan used her too much in the first part of the race and rode a poorly judged race generally. Pay the Fiddler, handsomely ridden by Winkfield, won the race and achieved a popular victory from a public standpoint, as this gelding runs consistently and consequently had a big following.

Jockey Buchanan, through sheer carelessness, cost Pat Duane and his colt Silurian a purse in the first event. This youthful knight of the pigskin had everything his own way when he hit the stretch, but instead of coming on about his business he proceeded to give the other boys the laugh, but before his laugh was well on its way, Tyr, with Bloss up, came with a terrific rush and passed the wire a winner by a neck.

Hugh Kane and his friends backed L. T. Caton in the fourth race from 4 to 1 down to 3 to 1. They thought they had a good thing on the race the horse ran a few days ago. Ordinarily they would have had it, but L. T. Caton met with all kinds of bad luck. He had the outside position at the post which is quite a disadvantage at the seven furlong start. He got away none too well and was on the outside of the field when going around the turn. On top of all this L. T. Caton made the stretch bend very wide. He ran gamely through the stretch but was beaten out three parts of a length for third money in a close finish between the first five. Pirate J., an outsider at 8 to 1 and always in a good position, won by a length. He was well ridden by Buchanan. Jim W., the pacemaker, just lasted it out beating Lady Britannia a neck for second money.

The handicappers made Ohnet favorite over The Unknown in the fifth at a mile, but they had the Hayes colt a bit underrated. He made the pace under a pull to the far turn where Vittoe let out a wrap and he opened a gap of four lengths from Ohnet. The latter came fast through the stretch and at one point had his neck in front of The Unknown, but the son of Pirate of Penzance only needed to be aroused a trifle to outstride his rival and win a good race by a head.

Woodstick, recently sold by H. T. Griffin to Mrs. R. M. Westerfield, seems to be one of the gamest youngsters at the track and after being hard punished all the way, he won the third race rather handily by about two lengths from Icon, who improved rather suddenly under a smashing good ride.

Vittoe had his first mount in Chicago for a long time yesterday on The Unknown, and won in fine form.

Jockey Bassinger was notified by Judges Kuhl and Trevathan that he cannot ride any more at Hawthorne this year. Rough tactics that endanger the lives of other jockeys is the cause.

The Futurity race will be called through the grandstand and in the betting ring at Hawthorne today.

Yesterday's attendance was the largest of the week. Nearly 7,000 people were present.

There are seven races on today's card, the extra event being a substituted steeplechase over the short course, in which Sir Dick, Frond, Leando, Brakeman, Passe Partout, Coronatus and Uncle Jim are entered. This race will come third on the program, replacing a handicap event which failed to fill.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

All the heavy work of building the new grandstand, the stabling and the race course proper at Kinloch Park will have been completed by next Saturday night.

There will be nothing left to do the following week but put on the finishing touches, to paint up the stand and the fences and to make everything look spick, span and clean for the opening day—Saturday, September 1.

When, on August 1, the gentlemen of the Kinloch Jockey Club announced that they would have their race course ready to run over on September 1, there were men who laughed at the mere suggestion of a first-class race course being erected in that time, but the men back of the new venture evidently knew what they were talking about, for they have not only completed the seemingly impossible task, but they will be ready for business a full week ahead of time.

The new grandstand at Kinloch Park is just a city block in length, the track has been fitted up with all the modern improvements of a first-class course, including a splendid paddock and a hundred roomy stables.

While the managers of the new venture have been at work on the race course and its entire equipment, the Wabash Railway and the Suburban electric managers have also taken hold of the important end of transportation. Both roads have put in new switches on the grounds, long platforms, and have made all arrangements to accommodate the big crowd that is expected out on the opening day. The Suburban managers say that they will run cars direct from Sixth and Locust streets to the new race course without change, and that 10-cent fare will be maintained throughout the racing season. The Wabash railroad managers have arranged to run trains from Union station and from the foot of Olive street. The trains from Olive street will stop at North Market street, St. Louis avenue, Bremen avenue, Grand avenue, Baden and all other points enroute to the track. The trains leaving Union station will stop at Ewing avenue, Vandeventer avenue, Forsythe Junction, Ferguson and all other points along that line.

The Wabash managers will clear the track

Winner—Ch. f, by Ben Strome—Burgonet.
Went to post at 1:37. At post 2 minutes. Start very bad. Won easily; second the same. Luck was about the only one that had a chance when the flag fell and got off running with the others strung out several lengths apart. Luck had plenty left but with an even break Kid would have won as he made up much ground. Taveta would have also beaten Luck with any kind of a nearly even break. Guess Work showed no great speed. Zenaide had early speed but tired.
Luck, place, 8 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Kid, place, 3 to 1; show, 8 to 5. Taveta, show, 1 to 3. Guess Work, place, 2 to 5; show, out.

Winner—Br. g, by Linden—Gillian.
Went to post at 2:03. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Koenig was best after Tyr shena retired. He was drawing away at the end and had something left. Godfrey ran well and appeared like the winner at the beginning of the last furlong. Tim Gainiey was outrun in the first part of the race, but closed with a rush. Kufa showed early speed, but tired; as did also Spurs. Tyr Shena was running easily when she bled and had to be pulled up.

Scratched—(20238)Hood's Brigade, 97; 20008 Anroy, 93.

Went to post at 2:35. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won ridden out; second the same. Prejudice showed the most speed, but was doing her best at the end. Gibraltar looked and ran better than on the occasion of his last appearance and was on the outside all the way which cost him some ground. Ralston showed fine speed to the stretch and then tired. Meehanus was in poor condition to start. He was very lame and did not show his usual speed. Elsie Barnes, off last, ran a good race. High Jinks ran well.

for the race trains and they will make the trip from the city to the racetrack inside of thirty minutes. The new racetrack is located exactly twelve miles from the Union station at the intersection of the Wabash and the Suburban electric roads. The Florissant valley has long been regarded as one of the prettiest spots in the world, and the new Kinloch Park course is located in the very center of it. A prettier piece of ground on which to locate a first-class racetrack cannot be imagined.—St. Louis Republic.

Joe McAuliffe, who has been riding and training horses in the Hawaiian Islands for the past two years, arrived from Honolulu this week.
He says that the meetings held at Honolulu and Hilo this year were the most successful ever held at the islands, and that the California horses got more than their share of the money.
Joe rode Dixie Land to victory in all but one of the hurdle races. Among the other California winners were Venus, formerly owned by Dow Williams; Billy McClosky, with three wins to his credit; Watossa, Uncle True, Zinfandel, Weller and Aggravation, the latter being a Brutus mare presented to Helen Wilder, the well known President of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals at Honolulu, by Charlie Boots. Everett, by St. Saviour, and Naples, which showed marked improvement in their races at Honolulu and Hilo, have been shipped back to this city. They are in charge of Trainer Bob Burns.—San Francisco Breeder

Winner—Br. c, by Kingston—Miss Dixie.
Went to post at 2:25. Off at the second break to a good start. Won driving to the limit; second and third the same. Tyr was the best ridden and won a lucky race. Bloss picked the good going throughout and came with a rush at the end catching Buchanan on Silurian asleep. It was strictly carelessness that cost Silurian the race. The colt had everything his own way at the head of the stretch and had Buchanan come on about his business he could not have beat. Dandy Jim suffered from poor handling. He was in the deepest going all down the backstretch and was also repeatedly interfered with by Orris Goan. The latter ran a fairly good race. So did His Eminence, who had a rough journey. The Conqueror showed some speed, but not much. Scratched—20172 Battus, 105; 19502 Nibbler, 93; 20202 Countess Clara, 93; 20202 Audie, 93; 20200 William Boyer, 93.

Overweights—Poyntz, 4 pounds; Burnett's Walkaway, 3.
Tyr, place, 1 to 2; show, 1 to 4. Silurian, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Dandy Jim, show, 2 to 5.

Winner—Br. h, by Eolus—Brown Beauty.
Went to post at 2:55. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. The first three were close together and driving to the limit. Braw Lad stopped on the turn but came again at the end with a tremendous rush. His race was a great improvement over any of his recent performances. Lomond ran a smashing good race and was in front at the sixteenth post but in the last twenty yards hung. Tame Irishman is a rank quitter and from the sixteenth post home stopped almost to a walk. With clear sailing Insurrection would have been a keen contender. Bassinger on Locust Blossom seemed to have a special mission to take care of Insurrection. Kentucky Babe ran a good race. Locust Blossom, better handled, would have been much closer up.

Scratched—20112 Chicopee, 100.
Overweights—Microscope, 3 pounds; Insurrection, 14; Negligence, 1.
Braw Lad, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Lomond, place, 3 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Tame Irishman, show, 6 to 5.

Winner—Ch. c, by Fiddlesticks—Wood Nymph.
Went to post at 3:40. Off at the first break to a good start. Won with something left after an early drive. The next three were under keen pressure. Woodstick is a good, game, consistent colt. He was under the whip from the head of the stretch home. Icon likes soft going and ran a greatly improved race. He was well ridden. Dangerline quit badly at the end and barely lasted long enough to be third. Hurry had a rough journey. Albert Enright showed some speed. Satin Coat ran a bad race.

Overweights—Satin Coat, 2 pounds.

Winner—Br. c, by Pirate of Penzance—Wrong.
Went to post at 4:10. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second, third and fourth were hard at it. Pirate J. came out of the rack at the head of the stretch and after a brief struggle won going away. Jim W. had clear sailing, showed the most early speed and hung on longer than usual. Lady Britannic had no excuses and ran one of her best races. The going did not suit L. T. Caton and besides he was badly ridden. Josephine B. got into a jam at the start and after that never had a chance. Oxnard was shut off and interfered with at every turn. Tildy Ann showed but little speed and ran a miserable race. La Princessa broke in front and did not show enough to outrun a fat man.

Scratched—20204 Dagmar, 109; 20205 Aloha II, 100.
Overweights—Sister Fox, 4 pounds; La Princessa, 1.
Pirate J., place, 3 to 1; show, 3 to 2. Jim W., place, 2 to 1; show, 4 to 5. Lady Britannic, show, 4 to 1. L. T. Caton, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Br. c, by Pirate of Penzance—Romania.
Went to post at 4:40. Off at the first break to a good start. Won in a hard drive of two. The next four were driving also. The Unknown is a colt of fair class and was cleverly ridden. Vititoe rated him with judgment in front and when the pinch came rode a strong finish with his hands. At the weights and as the race was run Ohnet was the best. Buchanan seemed weak, however, and allowed the gelding to swerve in the deep going in the stretch. The first two out-classed the others and beat them away off. Owensboro ran his usual honest race. Hansford was badly outrun in the first part of the race and does not seem to amount to much. Prairie Dog was up in the first flight for about five furlongs and is deserving of attention in cheaper company.

Scratched—20144 Dissolute, 107; (20145) Frangible, 99.
Overweights—Mountebank, 2 pounds; Hansford, 44.
The Unknown, place, 7 to 10; show, out. Ohnet, place, 2 to 5; show, out. Owensboro, show, evens. Hansford, place, 6 to 5; show, 2 to 5.

Winner—Br. g, by Major Domo—Arilla.
Went to post at 5:15. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden and out to the last ounce; second and third were under keen pressure. Pay the Fiddler is a handy selling plater and under a fine ride ran perhaps the best race of his career. Handpress was much used in racing with Lady Meddlesome in the first part of the race and was tired enough to lie down at the end. Lady Meddlesome improved wonderfully since her last start, and after being heavily backed came near landing. This filly was ridden with poor judgment and, taking everything into consideration, perhaps should have won. Blue Lick was carrying too much weight. The Devil ran a fair race. So did Hub Prather. The others were beaten off.

Scratched—8642 Can't Dance, 97.
Overweights—Blue Lick, 2 pounds; Hub Prather, 14; Pay the Fiddler, 24.
Pay the Fiddler, place, 6 to 5; show, 7 to 10. Handpress, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Lady Meddlesome, place, 4 to 5; show, out.

Winner—Ch. f, by Uncle Jess—Barbary Maid.
Went to post at 2:34. At post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. The Light showed great speed, held the race safe throughout and won as she pleased. It was a rank form reversal, as Lord Neville beat her off in her last previous start. Eight Bells ran a corking good race. Kindred ran to his mark. Lord Neville was outrun from the start, and his race was below his true form.

Overweights—Lord Neville, 5 pounds.
The Light, place, 2 to 5; show, out. Eight Bells, place, 7 to 10; show, 1 to 3. Kindred, show, 8 to 5. Lord Neville, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5.

Winner—B. g. by Julien—Credora. Went to post at 4:46. At post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. L. W. finished strongly and got up in the final stride. Landry rode a strong finish and caught Deist tiring in the last sixteenth. He had to go all around his field to get to the front. Deist and Vint did their best. March Past got away well in motion but was used up in following Deist.

L. W., place, out. Deist, place, evens; show, 2 to 5. Vint, show, evens.
